NSS National Awards

Context:

In 2023, University received the National Service Scheme (NSS) program received a prestigious national award in recognition of its outstanding contributions to community service and social impact. This accolade underscores the dedication and hard work of our NSS volunteers, who have tirelessly worked towards uplifting communities and addressing societal challenges. The award serves as a testament to our commitment to fostering civic engagement, empathy, and positive change among our students, empowering them to become responsible citizens and leaders of tomorrow.

Every year the National NSS award is given for the outstanding activities for service of the society in 3 categories viz University, College and Volunteers. Ministry of Youth Affairs, Govt. of India host this award and the ceremony is held at President House. Every year only two universities are awarded by the President of India. Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Agra was the only University who received this award in first category for the year 2021-22.

Activities: NSS volunteers worked significantly in the field of social awareness activities such as cleanliness, tree plantation, literacy awareness, health and hygiene awareness, blood donation etc.

In recognition of volunteers, exemplary and commendable social service the University is awarded the National Service Award for the year 2021-22
