

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY & CULTURE
DR. BHIMRAO AMBEDKAR UNIVERSITY, AGRA

Annexure-1

M.A. (HISTORY)

ORDINANCES & SYLLABUS (BASED ON NEP)

1. INTRODUCTION:-

The course is known as Master of Arts in History and Culture under the Department of History & Culture. The course is entirely different to the course concept of the Master Degree of Art in History and taught in the Colleges of Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University. This course is planned with a view to update the knowledge of History based upon the recent trends and with a perspective and emphasis on Global History. What is relevant and useful in History has been included. The present syllabus would signify a modern approach to the subject History. The course will surely improve the personality of the students with integrated virtues and character. It will help them to understand the eternal value of life and will guide them in various examinations in life.

2. DURATION:-

The course shall be divided in four semesters and each semester shall cover at least 120 working days.

3. SEATS:-

The maximum number of admission to M.A. in one academic year shall be not more than 60. However, the Vice-Chancellor will have the discretion of extending the number of seats, on the recommendation of Head of the Department.

4. ELIGIBILITY:-

- (i) The applicant should be a Graduate in any discipline with Minimum 45% Marks.
- (ii) The Admission of the applications will be decided only after the Screening/ Interview committee constituted by the Head of the Department under his/her Chairmanship.
- (iii) It would be compulsory at the time of Interview to submit original mark sheets and other relevant supporting documents.
- (iv) Application for admission should be submitted in the department on prescribed form available on the official website of the university.

S.A. Singh

[Signature]

[Signature]

[Signature] 3

[Signature]
25/2/23

[Signature]
[Signature]