

16 PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS

University aims to promote peace and justice to ensure everyone feels safe and free from violence ,regardless of their ethnicity faith or sexual orientation .University ensures that everyone has access to equal justice and the rule of law is upheld and the policies are effective .All stakeholders are accountable and inclusive they are given right to privacy freedom of expression and access to information Students are educated by conducting many activities they are taught to take stand against corruption terrorism and violence.

Some activities done in this area are:

- Sathi - Sahyogi Program for CISF Personnel 17 to 24 March 2023 The university has launched the Sathi-Sahyogi Program, aimed at providing support and assistance to CISF (Central Industrial Security Force) personnel. This initiative recognizes the invaluable contributions of CISF personnel in ensuring the safety and security of the community and seeks to express gratitude for their dedicated service.

"Sathi-Sahyogi," was organized on March 17th and 24th, 2023, for CISF personnel posted at the Tai Mahal to alleviate stress and promote tourist-friendly interactions.

Independence Day celebrations can serve as an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff to reaffirm their commitment to national progress, social justice, and the ideals of liberty and equality. It's a time to celebrate the achievements of the past, acknowledge the challenges of the present, and envision a brighter future for the nation.

Independence Day Celebration on 15-08-2023

- NSS AWARD 29 September 2023 Being recognized by the honorable President of India, Smt. Dropadi Murmu, highlights the exemplary leadership, dedication, and impact of their work. Their efforts have not only brought pride to the university but also made a positive difference in the lives of countless individuals through their contributions to the NSS (National Service Scheme).

“Award from the President of India Smt. Dropadi Murmu awarded the national award to University Vice- Chancellor Prof. Ashu Rani and University NSS Coordinator Dr. Ramvir Singh Chauhan. Vice Chancellor and NSS coordinator received a trophy and a cash prize of Rs. 2,00,000/- on 29 September 2023.

- International Mother Language Day 21 February 2022 Celebrating International Mother Language Day is a meaningful way for universities to recognize linguistic diversity and promote multilingualism among students, faculty, and staff. This day, observed on February 21st, honors the importance of preserving and promoting mother tongues worldwide.

Prof. Vinay Pathak delivering his talk importance of mother language teaching under NEP 2020 in the inaugural of the celebration at KMI, Prof. U.C.Sharma, Prof. Pradeep Shridhar and others

- Vigyan Sarvatra Pujyate 22-28 February 2022 Organizing a "Vigyan Sarvatra Pujyate" event specifically for students is a commendable initiative by the university to foster a culture of scientific inquiry, curiosity, and appreciation among its student body. Such an event provides students with a platform to engage with science in various interactive and informative ways.

Prof. Sanjeev Sharma giving certificate to NSS volunteer at Vigyan Sarvatra Pujyate Festival of (SCoPE) (22-28, FEB 2022)

- Seminar on “Indian Knowledge Tradition” 17 November 2022 Hosting a seminar on "Indian Knowledge Tradition" is a commendable initiative by the university. Such events provide valuable opportunities for students and faculty to delve into the rich heritage of India's knowledge systems.

A Program on Indian Knowledge tradition organized by department of linguistic Prof. Ashu Rani VC presenting certificate to all the participants.

- Geet Ramayan 13 January 2019 The university has organized a Geet Ramayan event, showcasing the timeless epic through musical performances and cultural presentations. Through melodious renditions and artistic interpretations, Geet Ramayan offered a captivating glimpse into the profound themes and narratives of the Ramayana, fostering a sense of unity and cultural pride.

Mr. Shridhar Phadke, Sh. Anand Madgulkar and their crew showcasing melodious recitation of Ramayana at the event 'Geet Ramayana' organized by the University.

- Peace and Salute March 15 February 2019 The university's staff and students participated in a Peace and Salute March to honor and support the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF). By joining together in this march, the university community expressed their gratitude and solidarity with the CRPF, emphasizing the importance of peace and unity in the face of adversity

Participation of staff and students in Peace and Salute March to support Central Reserve Police Force

- Kargil Vijay Diwas 26 July 2019 The university commemorated Kargil Vijay Diwas, paying tribute to the valor and sacrifice of our armed forces during the Kargil War. This event served as a poignant reminder of the indomitable spirit and bravery of our soldiers who safeguard the nation's sovereignty.

Prof. Santosh Bihari addressing the audience on the occasion of Kargil Vijay Diwas in order to pay tribute to Indian Armed Forces

- Subhash Chandra Bose Jayanti 23 January 2018 The university has organized a seminar commemorating Subhash Chandra Bose Jayanti. Through insightful discussions, presentations, and reflections on Bose's ideals of patriotism, leadership, and sacrifice, the seminar aims to inspire and educate participants about his remarkable journey and vision for a free India. It provides an opportunity for students, faculty members of the University to engage with Bose's ideas and explore their relevance in today's context.

Seminar on the occasion of Subhash Chandra Bose Jayanti throwing light on his remarkable journey and vision for a free India

- The university is committed to sensitizing its students and employees through the celebration of Ambedkar Jayanti. This occasion serves as a platform to honor the legacy of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, an architect of the Indian Constitution and a champion of social justice and equality. By commemorating Ambedkar Jayanti, the university aims to reflection, and action towards creating a more equitable society.

- Independence Day 15 August 2018 The university campus celebrates with anticipation and patriotism as students, faculty, and staff gather to commemorate Independence Day. The day begins with the solemn raising of the national flag, accompanied by the stirring strains of the national anthem. As the sun sets, the sky lights up with a dazzling display of fireworks, symbolizing the enduring spirit of liberty and unity that binds the university community together.

Independence Day Celebration on 15-08-2018

March Past on Independence Day Celebration

- The celebration of Gandhi Jayanti presents a unique opportunity to sensitize both students and employees to the profound principles espoused by Mahatma Gandhi. By reflecting on Gandhi's life and philosophy, individuals gain a deeper understanding of the importance of empathy, tolerance, and ethical leadership in their personal and professional lives. The celebration of Gandhi Jayanti serves as a catalyst for fostering a culture of compassion, social responsibility, and positive change among students and employees alike

On Gandhi Jayanti, the Honorable Vice Chancellor addressed the audience, reflecting on the enduring legacy of Mahatma Gandhi and his principles of non-violence and social justice. Concurrently, the Pro Vice Chancellor paid tribute to the Indian freedom struggle, honoring the sacrifices made by countless individuals in the pursuit of independence.