Name of Activity
Workshop on the "Mathematical Modelling and its Applications"
Date of Activity
22/03/2025
Name of the Department
Department of Mathematics
Brief Description of Activity
This workshop on "Mathematical Modelling and its Applications" explores how mathematics is used to understand and solve real-world problems across disciplines like physics, engineering, biology, and economics. Through expert lectures and interactive sessions, participants gained insights into modelling techniques and discovered mathematics's interdisciplinary role.
